

EMPLOYEE DRESS CODE POLICY

PURPOSE OF POLICY

Bonneville Academy strives to provide a quality learning environment for students. We recognize that school employees are role models for students and the employee dress code provides a standard that will uphold the mission and vision of our school environment.

PROFESSIONAL DRESS: Monday-Thursday employees are expected to dress in professional attire that is consistent with their role and job duties.

- No tight or revealing clothing. No hats, shorts or denim jeans (colored jeans allowed)
- Professional tops and pants/slacks (no rips or holes)
- Ties, skirts, and dresses are appreciated, but not required

CASUAL DRESS: Friday or last student day of the week staff may wear casual attire.

- Jeans allowed
- Clothing choices maintain the spirit of student dress code
- Spirit wear is encouraged but not required

The School Director may make changes to the dress code designation for the day to reflect special occasions or events. Failure to adhere to the employee dress code will result in disciplinary action as dictated by the School Director.
